GROWL Overview

Hand cursor pointing to the Overview link.

The inset screenshot shows the 'GROWL' organization overview page. It features the organization logo, name, and URL. Below this, there are tabs for 'Boards' and 'Members'. Under the 'Boards' tab, there is a section for 'My Org Boards' containing 'Current Sprint' (red), 'Products backlog' (blue), and 'Create new board...' (grey). Below that is a section for 'Other Org-Visible Boards' with a 'Create new board...' button. The browser's taskbar and system tray are visible at the bottom of the inset.

List "Scrum quick guide"

All cards inside this list explain different things on how Scrum works

List "Sprint Backlog"

Each card in this list represents a task that is planned to be accomplished until next month's meeting.

These tasks/cards are set during the monthly meeting.

The relative position of the cards defines the relative priority of the tasks.

When one task from this list starts to be in progress of being accomplished, then this task/card has to be moved to the next List (List "In progress").

- (3) Put assignments in practice, define workflow and follow-up
- (5) Description of different ways of presenting: interactive, academic, poetic, practical, political
- (1) As a trainer, I want to have a guide or example on how to prepare an interactive presentation on degrowth, so that I can follow it when organising a course or workshop
- how to train ttt
- (5) Meth:Mapping Pathways
- (2) Review course organisation

Common module backlog

- degrowth sources
- Create text/chapter on open localism
- (3) Find people that will develop chapters of degrowth history in other countries than France, Italy and Spain
- (5) Ready-to-use academic presentation on degrowth, with notes
- (1) Incorporate introduction to degrowth made on conferences
- (5) Translate the texts that presents the resources of

Organisation backlog

- website
- (Digitalise?) Map of degrowth initiatives
- Add label/taxonomy for development workflow of modules
- a re-usable inscription formular for each course
- As a participant to future courses, I would like to have the upcoming courses migrated by the responsible course organizers, so that I know the latest syllabus and the current date of the courses.
